二.申論題(40%)

Since a few months ago, large numbers of refugees, or migrants, have made their journey from their home countries in Syria, Iraq, or Afghanistan, to the European Union to seek asylum. The event has attracted much media attention, discussion and debate from around the world. Some countries generously welcome these refugees, while others are more cautious and conservative. What do you know about this migration or refugee crisis? What social, cultural, or national problems it causes if one country decides to receive these refugees? If they want to come to Taiwan to seek asylum, will you welcome them? Should our government welcome them? Why or why not?
